False Albacore University (FAU)

by

The True Secret Order of False Albacorian Monks

Until now, little has been known about the world's finest and most prestigious university. False Albacore University (FAU) was founded 600 years ago, in the year 1415, by the True Secret Order of False Albacorian Monks. Its magnificent campus is located in the limestone caverns under Harkers Island. FAU has no football team, only NCAA Fly Casting. With an endowment of $480 billion, it is tuition free. Students cannot apply to False Albacore University: they are chosen.

FAU has produced the greatest thinkers and athletes of the last six centuries. Distinguished graduates include George Washington, Donnie Jones, William Shakespeare, Izaak Walton, Lefty Kreh, Bill Gates, Dolly Parton, Albert Einstein, Benjamin Franklin, Aretha Franklin, Rachel Carson, and LeBron James. FAU notables who flunked out after their freshmen year at FAU include Tom Brady, Kim Kardashian, Lance Armstrong, Bill O'Reilly, and Donald Trump.

The Monks have demonstrated that four years studying false albacore at Cape Lookout is far superior to any existing humanities or science curriculum. It is known as the "AlbaCORE Curriculum." The designer of our 'CORE curriculum, FAU Chancellor Lefty Kreh, recently stated: "To know the false albacore and its environment is to know physics, chemistry, poetry, biology, meteorology, admiralty, and hydrodynamics. By fishing exclusively for albacore, our graduates never flounder or get the blues."

More inventions and great literature have been created at FAU than at all other universities combined. Inventions developed at FAU include the transistor, Internet, Clouser Minnow, catsup, microwave ovens, solar panel, polio vaccine, graphite fly rod, Wikipedia, FedEx, outboard motors, barbecue, iPhone, drones, and Velcro.

For the fall of 2015, the Monks are predicting epic numbers of false albacore. For this reason, False Albacore University has included on its Homecoming Banquet and Barbecue invitation list all graduates and the world's finest anglers – including you!
